

1-12-1962

The Ledger and Times, January 12, 1962

The Ledger and Times

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.murraystate.edu/tlt>

Recommended Citation

The Ledger and Times, "The Ledger and Times, January 12, 1962" (1962). The Ledger & Times. 4001.
<https://digitalcommons.murraystate.edu/tlt/4001>

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the Newspapers at Murray State's Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Ledger & Times by an authorized administrator of Murray State's Digital Commons. For more information, please contact msu.digitalcommons@murraystate.edu.

The Newspaper
With The Largest Circulation

THE LEDGER & TIMES

Largest
Circulation In
The City
Largest Circulation In
The County

United Press International

IN OUR 83rd YEAR

Murray, Ky., Friday Afternoon, January 12, 1962

MURRAY POPULATION 10,100

Vol. LXXXIII No. 10

THOUSANDS OF MILES OF COLD AND ICE—While millions suffered in the mighty Arctic-spawned weather from the Rockies to the Atlantic, and unofficially 71 deaths were counted in 15 states, workers at a Little Rock, Arkansas, service station (left) shovel their sidewalks with shovels imported from Detroit when the local supply ran out. In Buffalo, N.Y., (right) a mailman lives up to the highest traditions of his calling, wading through knee-deep snow. Meanwhile, San Francisco registered its hottest January day in 85 years with a 79 on Monday.

3,000 To 4,000 Dead Expected In Mud Slide

LIMA, Peru (UPI)—Peruvian authorities launched a massive effort today to provide shelter and relief for scattered survivors of the tragic avalanche which wiped out nine villages on the slopes of snow-capped Huascarán late Wednesday.

Bad weather and blocked roads hampered relief efforts, making it difficult to reach the scene of the mountain disaster by air or by land.

A particular problem was posed by the town of Yungay, north of the slide area. Yungay's 20,000 people suffered no direct injury from the avalanche, but their town was completely isolated and its water supply was cut off.

No accurate count had been made of the number of people killed by the slide—estimated at 3,000 to 4,000—or the number of homeless survivors.

Gen. Luis F. Urrelo, chief of the relief operation, arranged to tour the area by helicopter today to try to find out how many people he must provide for.

Most of the bodies, entombed in the millions of tons of rock and earth that cascaded down the mountainside, may never be recovered. About a dozen bodies had been fished out of the rain-swollen Santa River, and a watch was set on the riverbank downstream from the slide area.

One of Urrelo's most pressing concerns was the task of finding shelter and arranging care for about 200 Indian children left homeless by the avalanche. About half of them were orphaned.

The difficulty of determining the number of survivors was heightened by the fact that many of those able to walk fled the Huascarán Wednesday night or early Thursday, fearing a repetition of the disaster.

Relief planes diverted from the immediate area because of rain and overcast landed at the nearest open airports. Arrangements were made to truck their supplies to points where they were needed.

Boyce McClard Is With 100th Division

Pvt. Boyce D. McClard, whose wife, Geraldine, lives at Alto, Kentucky, has been assigned to Company E, 399th Regiment, at Fort Chaffee, Ark., where he will receive his basic combat training.

During the 8-week course, he will be given instruction in fundamental military subjects such as first aid, dismounted drill, map reading and military tactics. He will qualify with the M-1 Rifle.

After completion of basic training, he will receive advanced individual training in one of the thousands of specialties required in a modern Army.

The 399th Regiment is part of the 100th Division, an Army Reserve unit from Kentucky. The 100th was the first Division called to active duty in the current military build-up.

A particular problem was posed by the town of Yungay, north of the slide area. Yungay's 20,000 people suffered no direct injury from the avalanche, but their town was completely isolated and its water supply was cut off.

No accurate count had been made of the number of people killed by the slide—estimated at 3,000 to 4,000—or the number of homeless survivors.

Gen. Luis F. Urrelo, chief of the relief operation, arranged to tour the area by helicopter today to try to find out how many people he must provide for.

Most of the bodies, entombed in the millions of tons of rock and earth that cascaded down the mountainside, may never be recovered. About a dozen bodies had been fished out of the rain-swollen Santa River, and a watch was set on the riverbank downstream from the slide area.

One of Urrelo's most pressing concerns was the task of finding shelter and arranging care for about 200 Indian children left homeless by the avalanche. About half of them were orphaned.

The difficulty of determining the number of survivors was heightened by the fact that many of those able to walk fled the Huascarán Wednesday night or early Thursday, fearing a repetition of the disaster.

Relief planes diverted from the immediate area because of rain and overcast landed at the nearest open airports. Arrangements were made to truck their supplies to points where they were needed.

The difficulty of determining the number of survivors was heightened by the fact that many of those able to walk fled the Huascarán Wednesday night or early Thursday, fearing a repetition of the disaster.

Relief planes diverted from the immediate area because of rain and overcast landed at the nearest open airports. Arrangements were made to truck their supplies to points where they were needed.

The difficulty of determining the number of survivors was heightened by the fact that many of those able to walk fled the Huascarán Wednesday night or early Thursday, fearing a repetition of the disaster.

Relief planes diverted from the immediate area because of rain and overcast landed at the nearest open airports. Arrangements were made to truck their supplies to points where they were needed.

The difficulty of determining the number of survivors was heightened by the fact that many of those able to walk fled the Huascarán Wednesday night or early Thursday, fearing a repetition of the disaster.

Relief planes diverted from the immediate area because of rain and overcast landed at the nearest open airports. Arrangements were made to truck their supplies to points where they were needed.

The difficulty of determining the number of survivors was heightened by the fact that many of those able to walk fled the Huascarán Wednesday night or early Thursday, fearing a repetition of the disaster.

Relief planes diverted from the immediate area because of rain and overcast landed at the nearest open airports. Arrangements were made to truck their supplies to points where they were needed.

The difficulty of determining the number of survivors was heightened by the fact that many of those able to walk fled the Huascarán Wednesday night or early Thursday, fearing a repetition of the disaster.

Relief planes diverted from the immediate area because of rain and overcast landed at the nearest open airports. Arrangements were made to truck their supplies to points where they were needed.

The difficulty of determining the number of survivors was heightened by the fact that many of those able to walk fled the Huascarán Wednesday night or early Thursday, fearing a repetition of the disaster.

Relief planes diverted from the immediate area because of rain and overcast landed at the nearest open airports. Arrangements were made to truck their supplies to points where they were needed.

The difficulty of determining the number of survivors was heightened by the fact that many of those able to walk fled the Huascarán Wednesday night or early Thursday, fearing a repetition of the disaster.

Relief planes diverted from the immediate area because of rain and overcast landed at the nearest open airports. Arrangements were made to truck their supplies to points where they were needed.

The difficulty of determining the number of survivors was heightened by the fact that many of those able to walk fled the Huascarán Wednesday night or early Thursday, fearing a repetition of the disaster.

Ordination Service Is Set Sunday

A special service for the ordination of elders-elect and installation of other officers of College Presbyterian Church is announced for 3:30 o'clock on Sunday afternoon, Jan. 14. At this service, service Alfred Lindsey and Charles Simons will be ordained as Presbyterian Elders. Other officers to be installed include Elders Walter Jones and Dr. A. H. Kopperud; Deacons Elmer Robert Jones, Dr. Lee A. Dew, James O. Williams and Jack Davenport; Church Treasurer, J. A. Moore; Church School Superintendent, Charles L. Ober and Assistant Superintendent, Bill Kopperud. All these officers were elected at the Annual Meeting of the congregation held on Wednesday evening. The officers and committee chairmen and "circle leaders" of the Women's Association will be also installed.

The pastor, Rev. Henry McKenzie, will speak briefly on "Presbyterianism, a Republic, with Representative Government." There will be special music and Ed McLean will be the guest organist.

New members will be received into full communion at this service.

A social hour in honor of the new officers will be enjoyed in Fellowship Hall following the services, with wives of the present elders in charge of arrangements, with Mrs. Kopperud as chairman.

All friends and members of the church are invited to attend.

All friends and members of the church are invited to attend.

All friends and members of the church are invited to attend.

All friends and members of the church are invited to attend.

All friends and members of the church are invited to attend.

All friends and members of the church are invited to attend.

All friends and members of the church are invited to attend.

All friends and members of the church are invited to attend.

All friends and members of the church are invited to attend.

All friends and members of the church are invited to attend.

All friends and members of the church are invited to attend.

All friends and members of the church are invited to attend.

All friends and members of the church are invited to attend.

All friends and members of the church are invited to attend.

All friends and members of the church are invited to attend.

All friends and members of the church are invited to attend.

All friends and members of the church are invited to attend.

All friends and members of the church are invited to attend.

All friends and members of the church are invited to attend.

All friends and members of the church are invited to attend.

All friends and members of the church are invited to attend.

All friends and members of the church are invited to attend.

All friends and members of the church are invited to attend.

All friends and members of the church are invited to attend.

All friends and members of the church are invited to attend.

All friends and members of the church are invited to attend.

Communists Caught In Act Of Doctoring Photo Of Viet Nam

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Communists again have been caught in the act of doctoring a photograph for propaganda purposes.

This time the sleight-of-hand was performed by "The Worker," official newspaper of the U.S. Communist party, published in New York.

"The Worker" devoted a large portion of the front page of its Jan. 19 issue to a picture bearing the headline: "U.S. war planes attack Viet Nam skies."

It showed a U.S. Air Force jet apparently in the process of taking off from an airfield. In the foreground stood a bamboo-hatted coolie with both fists raised over his head in a gesture of anger or protest.

Charge Violation—The caption said that "scores of U.S. jet bombers and fighters have arrived in Saigon" in a U.S. military "intervention" which violated the Geneva agreement of 1954 for a truce in Viet Nam.

To a casual reader, the picture might seem like photographic "proof" that American warplanes were operating out of a Viet Nam airfield to the disgust of a local citizen.

To sharper eyes, however, the picture tells an entirely different story.

A photographic analysis shows that both the plane and the coolie are in almost perfect focus, although they obviously are separated by considerable distance. At the same time, some bushes in the bottom of the picture are in very poor focus.

As anyone reasonably familiar with a camera knows, you do not come out with results like that unless the negative has been altered.

Different Shadows Noted—Another interesting feature of the picture is that the highlights on the plane are along its top edge, indicating that the sun was approximately overhead. But the shadow of the coolie's left arm lies straight across his hat, at an angle which shows that the sun was fairly low in the sky to his left.

Unless there are two separate suns in the skies over Viet Nam, this means that the coolie's picture was taken at a different time than the picture of the plane.

Other words, the picture is known politely as a "composite," or more bluntly, a fake.

This is the second time this month that Communist propagandists have been caught with their fingers in the photo-doctoring glue pot.

Earlier, the Soviet government distributed a picture which was supposed to be evidence that West German Gen. Adolf Heusinger took part in World War II atrocities. It purported to show Nazi soldiers burning a Russian village at Heusinger's orders.

The only trouble was that the Soviets earlier had distributed the same picture and had identified it as a shot of Japanese soldiers burning a Chinese village.

The only trouble was that the Soviets earlier had distributed the same picture and had identified it as a shot of Japanese soldiers burning a Chinese village.

The only trouble was that the Soviets earlier had distributed the same picture and had identified it as a shot of Japanese soldiers burning a Chinese village.

The only trouble was that the Soviets earlier had distributed the same picture and had identified it as a shot of Japanese soldiers burning a Chinese village.

The only trouble was that the Soviets earlier had distributed the same picture and had identified it as a shot of Japanese soldiers burning a Chinese village.

The only trouble was that the Soviets earlier had distributed the same picture and had identified it as a shot of Japanese soldiers burning a Chinese village.

The only trouble was that the Soviets earlier had distributed the same picture and had identified it as a shot of Japanese soldiers burning a Chinese village.

The only trouble was that the Soviets earlier had distributed the same picture and had identified it as a shot of Japanese soldiers burning a Chinese village.

The only trouble was that the Soviets earlier had distributed the same picture and had identified it as a shot of Japanese soldiers burning a Chinese village.

The only trouble was that the Soviets earlier had distributed the same picture and had identified it as a shot of Japanese soldiers burning a Chinese village.

The only trouble was that the Soviets earlier had distributed the same picture and had identified it as a shot of Japanese soldiers burning a Chinese village.

The only trouble was that the Soviets earlier had distributed the same picture and had identified it as a shot of Japanese soldiers burning a Chinese village.

The only trouble was that the Soviets earlier had distributed the same picture and had identified it as a shot of Japanese soldiers burning a Chinese village.

The only trouble was that the Soviets earlier had distributed the same picture and had identified it as a shot of Japanese soldiers burning a Chinese village.

The only trouble was that the Soviets earlier had distributed the same picture and had identified it as a shot of Japanese soldiers burning a Chinese village.

The only trouble was that the Soviets earlier had distributed the same picture and had identified it as a shot of Japanese soldiers burning a Chinese village.

The only trouble was that the Soviets earlier had distributed the same picture and had identified it as a shot of Japanese soldiers burning a Chinese village.

The only trouble was that the Soviets earlier had distributed the same picture and had identified it as a shot of Japanese soldiers burning a Chinese village.

The only trouble was that the Soviets earlier had distributed the same picture and had identified it as a shot of Japanese soldiers burning a Chinese village.

Grade School Pairings Are Announced

The pairings have been set for the Calloway County grade school basketball tournament to be held at Calloway County High School next Wednesday, Thursday, and Saturday nights. There will be no games on Friday night.

Action opens Wednesday night as Hazel meets Lynn Grove at 7 o'clock. The second game of the evening will clash New Concord with Kirksey at 8 o'clock.

Faxon's Panthers drew an upper bracket bye and Almo fell into the lower bracket bye. Thursday night at 7 o'clock Faxon meets the winner of the Hazel-Lynn Grove tussle and Almo takes on the Concord-Kirksey winner in the second tilt of the evening.

Both a consolation and championship game will be held on Saturday night with the preliminary affair set for 7 o'clock.

Local basketball fans are missing some interesting action by these junior high cagers by failing to attend regular season games. Fans are urged to go out to the new gym at Calloway where there are plenty of good comfortable seats and watch the action in this grade school classic.

Local basketball fans are missing some interesting action by these junior high cagers by failing to attend regular season games. Fans are urged to go out to the new gym at Calloway where there are plenty of good comfortable seats and watch the action in this grade school classic.

Local basketball fans are missing some interesting action by these junior high cagers by failing to attend regular season games. Fans are urged to go out to the new gym at Calloway where there are plenty of good comfortable seats and watch the action in this grade school classic.

Local basketball fans are missing some interesting action by these junior high cagers by failing to attend regular season games. Fans are urged to go out to the new gym at Calloway where there are plenty of good comfortable seats and watch the action in this grade school classic.

Local basketball fans are missing some interesting action by these junior high cagers by failing to attend regular season games. Fans are urged to go out to the new gym at Calloway where there are plenty of good comfortable seats and watch the action in this grade school classic.

Local basketball fans are missing some interesting action by these junior high cagers by failing to attend regular season games. Fans are urged to go out to the new gym at Calloway where there are plenty of good comfortable seats and watch the action in this grade school classic.

Local basketball fans are missing some interesting action by these junior high cagers by failing to attend regular season games. Fans are urged to go out to the new gym at Calloway where there are plenty of good comfortable seats and watch the action in this grade school classic.

Local basketball fans are missing some interesting action by these junior high cagers by failing to attend regular season games. Fans are urged to go out to the new gym at Calloway where there are plenty of good comfortable seats and watch the action in this grade school classic.

Local basketball fans are missing some interesting action by these junior high cagers by failing to attend regular season games. Fans are urged to go out to the new gym at Calloway where there are plenty of good comfortable seats and watch the action in this grade school classic.

Local basketball fans are missing some interesting action by these junior high cagers by failing to attend regular season games. Fans are urged to go out to the new gym at Calloway where there are plenty of good comfortable seats and watch the action in this grade school classic.

Local basketball fans are missing some interesting action by these junior high cagers by failing to attend regular season games. Fans are urged to go out to the new gym at Calloway where there are plenty of good comfortable seats and watch the action in this grade school classic.

Local basketball fans are missing some interesting action by these junior high cagers by failing to attend regular season games. Fans are urged to go out to the new gym at Calloway where there are plenty of good comfortable seats and watch the action in this grade school classic.

Local basketball fans are missing some interesting action by these junior high cagers by failing to attend regular season games. Fans are urged to go out to the new gym at Calloway where there are plenty of good comfortable seats and watch the action in this grade school classic.

Local basketball fans are missing some interesting action by these junior high cagers by failing to attend regular season games. Fans are urged to go out to the new gym at Calloway where there are plenty of good comfortable seats and watch the action in this grade school classic.

Local basketball fans are missing some interesting action by these junior high cagers by failing to attend regular season games. Fans are urged to go out to the new gym at Calloway where there are plenty of good comfortable seats and watch the action in this grade school classic.

Local basketball fans are missing some interesting action by these junior high cagers by failing to attend regular season games. Fans are urged to go out to the new gym at Calloway where there are plenty of good comfortable seats and watch the action in this grade school classic.

Local basketball fans are missing some interesting action by these junior high cagers by failing to attend regular season games. Fans are urged to go out to the new gym at Calloway where there are plenty of good comfortable seats and watch the action in this grade school classic.

Local basketball fans are missing some interesting action by these junior high cagers by failing to attend regular season games. Fans are urged to go out to the new gym at Calloway where there are plenty of good comfortable seats and watch the action in this grade school classic.

Local basketball fans are missing some interesting action by these junior high cagers by failing to attend regular season games. Fans are urged to go out to the new gym at Calloway where there are plenty of good comfortable seats and watch the action in this grade school classic.

Local basketball fans are missing some interesting action by these junior high cagers by failing to attend regular season games. Fans are urged to go out to the new gym at Calloway where there are plenty of good comfortable seats and watch the action in this grade school classic.

Local basketball fans are missing some interesting action by these junior high cagers by failing to attend regular season games. Fans are urged to go out to the new gym at Calloway where there are plenty of good comfortable seats and watch the action in this grade school classic.

Local basketball fans are missing some interesting action by these junior high cagers by failing to attend regular season games. Fans are urged to go out to the new gym at Calloway where there are plenty of good comfortable seats and watch the action in this grade school classic.

Local basketball fans are missing some interesting action by these junior high cagers by failing to attend regular season games. Fans are urged to go out to the new gym at Calloway where there are plenty of good comfortable seats and watch the action in this grade school classic.

Local basketball fans are missing some interesting action by these junior high cagers by failing to attend regular season games. Fans are urged to go out to the new gym at Calloway where there are plenty of good comfortable seats and watch the action in this grade school classic.

Local basketball fans are missing some interesting action by these junior high cagers by failing to attend regular season games. Fans are urged to go out to the new gym at Calloway where there are plenty of good comfortable seats and watch the action in this grade school classic.

Local basketball fans are missing some interesting action by these junior high cagers by failing to attend regular season games. Fans are urged to go out to the new gym at Calloway where there are plenty of good comfortable seats and watch the action in this grade school classic.

Local basketball fans are missing some interesting action by these junior high cagers by failing to attend regular season games. Fans are urged to go out to the new gym at Calloway where there are plenty of good comfortable seats and watch the action in this grade school classic.

Relief Seen As Cold Moderates

Kentuckians today could look for some relief from freezing weather with a warming trend expected during the weekend.

Temperatures around the state were slightly warmer Thursday night and early today. Pikeville recorded a five below zero. Hopkinsville had a three below reading, and the mercury at Louisville hit zero.

Lows ranging from 10 to 20 above were forecast for tonight with above freezing readings expected Saturday and Sunday, along with the possibility of some light snow flurries.

Temperatures in Murray dropped to zero last night, some relief from the six below zero recorded Tuesday and Wednesday night. Industry using natural gas on an interruptible basis were curtailed this week to insure that all residences would have ample natural gas for heating purposes.

Murray Natural Gas officials said that ample natural gas is in the lines with pressure normal. Even if the quota contracted for, for the city, is exceeded, they said, an ample supply is available. It would merely cost the system a premium rate.

Industry can purchase natural gas at a firm rate or an interruptible rate, however the interruptible rate is usually chosen since it is far cheaper than a firm rate.

Other fuels in Murray apparently are holding out well. Some suffering from the cold comes from the fact that homes of this area are not constructed for continued below zero weather.

State police reported all roads in Kentucky were clear today with only a few slick spots remaining. Roads were slick in spots at London in eastern Kentucky where schools remained closed Thursday.

Schools in Graves County were closed and the Mayfield and Murray dark tobacco markets postponed sales until Monday.

At Louisville, the third straight night of the hard freeze stalled cars and blocked water pipes.

The Louisville Water Co. had 200 calls Thursday, most of them caused by frozen water pipes.

Nineteen of the 56 major communities from which the U. S. Weather Bureau compiles its national temperature roundups reported below zero temperatures Thursday.

More snow hit Buffalo, N. Y., and an ice jam on the Niagara River caused flooding at Niagara Falls, N. Y. Floodwaters were subsiding on Montana's Madison River after warmer temperatures dissolved an ice jam.

Schools remained closed in New Mexico, Texas, and Illinois. In Louisiana even the state university at Baton Rouge suspended operations.

All-time record lows were shattered Thursday at El Paso, Tex., Roanoke, Va., and Raleigh, N. C. It warmed up to 49 degrees below zero at Fraser, Colo., Thursday after setting a record of 53 below.

A warming trend will develop through this weekend, with occasional light precipitation averaging one to two tenths of an inch. Turning colder first of the week.

A warming trend will develop through this weekend, with occasional light precipitation averaging one to two tenths of an inch. Turning colder first of the week.

A warming trend will develop through this weekend, with occasional light precipitation averaging one to two tenths of an inch. Turning colder first of the week.

A warming trend will develop through this weekend, with occasional light precipitation averaging one to two tenths of an inch. Turning colder first of the week.

A warming trend will develop through this weekend, with occasional light precipitation averaging one to two tenths of an inch. Turning colder first of the week.

A warming trend will develop through this weekend, with occasional light precipitation averaging one to two tenths of an inch. Turning colder first of the week.

A warming trend will develop through this weekend, with occasional light precipitation averaging one to two tenths of an inch. Turning colder first of the week.

A warming trend will develop through this weekend, with occasional light precipitation averaging one to two tenths of an inch. Turning colder first of the week.

A warming trend will develop through this weekend, with occasional light precipitation averaging one to two tenths of an inch. Turning colder first of the week.

A warming trend will develop through this weekend, with occasional light precipitation averaging one to two tenths of an inch. Turning colder first of the week.

A warming trend will develop through this weekend, with occasional light precipitation averaging one to two tenths of an inch. Turning colder first of the week.

A warming trend will develop through this weekend, with occasional light precipitation averaging one to two tenths of an inch. Turning colder first of the week.

A warming trend will develop through this weekend, with occasional light precipitation averaging one to two tenths of an inch. Turning colder first of the week.

A warming trend will develop through this weekend, with occasional light precipitation averaging one to two tenths of an inch. Turning colder first of the week.

A warming trend will develop through this weekend, with occasional light precipitation averaging one to two tenths of an inch. Turning colder first of the week.

A warming trend will develop through this weekend, with occasional light precipitation averaging one to two tenths of an inch. Turning colder first of the week.

It was warmer early today in Bismarck, N. D., and Boston, Mass., than in Dallas, Tex., and Atlanta, Ga.

Texas' Rio Grande Valley had its third straight day of

THE LEDGER & TIMES

PUBLISHED by LEDGER & TIMES PUBLISHING COMPANY, Inc., Consolidation of the Murray Ledger, The Calloway Times, and The Times Herald, October 24, 1953, and the West Kentucky, January 1, 1942.

JAMES C. WILLIAMS, PUBLISHER

We reserve the right to reject any Advertising, Letters to the Editor, or Public Voice items which, in our opinion, are not for the best interest of our readers.

NATIONAL REPRESENTATIVES: WALLACE WINTER CO., 1500 Madison Ave., Memphis, Tenn.; Time & Life Bldg., New York, N.Y.; Stephenson Bldg., Detroit, Mich.

Entered at the Post Office, Murray, Kentucky, for transmission as Second Class Matter.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By Carrier in Murray, per week 20¢, per month $5.50; in Calloway and adjoining counties, per year, $23.50; elsewhere, $25.50.

FRIDAY — JANUARY 12, 1962

MCCORMACK "MAKES IT CLEAR"

As Congressman John W. McCormack, favored as Speaker of the House of Representatives to succeed Sam Rayburn and who was scheduled to be easily elected when Congress convenes today at noon, emerged from a democratic caucus at the White House yesterday reporters were anxious to find out what was decided in addition to an agreement to elect him.

In one of his rare appearances on television he measured up to what seems to be a requirement of a democratic leader in this "age of confusion" by making his position on medical aid to the aged, as well as other important issues, as "clear as mud."

"Everybody knows I have always been in favor of medical aid to the aged," he replied to a reporter's question, "and if the Ways and Means Committee reports a bill to the floor I feel sure it will be passed by Congress."

"Mr. McCormack, do you believe the Ways and Means Committee will report a medical aid bill to be financed under the social security program, and that it will be passed by Congress?" was the next question meant, undoubtedly, to clarify his views on chances of President Kennedy's Number One Campaign Promise to be enacted into law.

"Did I say that?" was his response. "What I meant to say was that 'if the Ways and Means Committee allows such a bill to come to the floor' that I think it will be adopted."

"But Mr. McCormack, what I want to know is whether you think such a bill will be reported to the House by the Ways and Means Committee," the reporter replied.

The Speaker-elect smiled to his television audience, then glanced at the reporters, made a courteous bow and said "I thank you, gentlemen," thereby ending the conference.

A small incident in itself, but just another straw in the wind, running so strongly away from New Frontiers, instead of towards them.

And Speaker McCormack may not be able to get the last few votes needed to pass "social legislation" from south of the Mason and Dixon Line like Mr. Sam could, even if he wants to. Which is also as "clear as mud."

Ten Years Ago Today

Ledger and Times File

The newly formed ground observation corps of Murray will get its first real experience Saturday when planes will fly over the city for identification and recording of pertinent information.

Philly Farris, passed away yesterday at his home on South Fourth Street. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mattie Farris, and two sons, Bonnie and Odo, both of Murray.

Weeklife's Blue Tigers dealt the Cubs their first defeat of the season and then downed Dawson Springs to win the 17th annual Purchase-Pennyrile Tournament Thursday in the Murray State College gym.

Mrs. Martha Garter, State Manager, and Mrs. Ruth Clifton, Deputy, of the Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle, will attend a training school in Cincinnati, Ohio, January 17-19.

NOBODY INJURED, HOWEVER—None of the 114 passengers were injured in this one, the Canadian Pacific pile-up near St. Eugene, Ont. Two crushed cars rest beneath the trestle.

GETTING THEIR STORY STRAIGHT—House Republican leaders look to be in good spirits in Washington as they formulate a policy statement giving the party's view of the job before Congress. From left: Rep. William E. Miller of New York, Republican national chairman; Rep. Charles Halleck of Indiana, minority leader; Rep. Bob Wilson of California. The policy statement will be issued before detailed legislative recommendations begin coming up.

INDICTED IN "POINT SHAVING" — Being booked at St. Louis on 34 counts of bribery and conspiracy in 10 indictments returned by a grand jury, Steve Lekometros (left), 37, and Dave Goldberg, 46, both of Clayton, Mo., are under $750,000 bond for allegedly "fixing" basketball games in the Atlantic Coast Conference and Dixie Classic Tournaments.

Bowling

Murray Merchants League

Collegiate Restaurant	541 214
West Side Barber Shop	51 25
Monk's Super Service	50 26
Kengas	47 29
American La. Pipeline	561 291
Burdum & Thurman	411 344
All Jersey	54 35
Parker Motors	40 36
Murray Home & Auto	361 391
Rocket Popcorn	32 44
Rudy's Restaurant	31 45
Murray Wholesale Gro.	30 46
Ryan Milk Company	29 47
Ryan's Grocery	29 47
Fruit of Loom	28 48
Ledger & Times	21 55
Wednesday, Jan. 10, 1962 Results
Collegiate Restaurant	2
Murray Wholesale Grocery	1
All Jersey 3 Parker Motors	1
West Side Barber Shop	1
Rudy's Restaurant	1
Monk's Super Service 3 Kengas	1
American La. Pipeline	1
Ryan Milk Co. 1
Johnson's Grocery	4
Fruit of Loom	0
Murray Home & Auto	4
Burdum & Thurman	0

Top Ten Averages

G. Hodge	176
D. Barden	176
B. Wright	173
B. Wade	172
J. Boone	171
C. Parker	171
R. Lagister	170
F. Pogue	168
T. Angerio	168
P. Buchanan	167

High Team Series

Murray Home & A.	2351 579-2930
Johnson's Gro.	2270 621-2891
Monk's Super Serv.	2373 438-2811

High Team Game

Murray Home & A.	837 193-1030
Johnson's Gro.	807 207-1014
Johnson's Gro.	803 207-1012

High Ind. Game

Artel Tucker	222 37-259
A. A. Doherty	202 23-223
Paul Bennett	179 44-223

High Ind. Series

Artel Tucker	546 111-657
L. J. Housdon	516 90-818
Sheldon Jager	489 123-612

Cage Schedule

January 12	Almo at Lynn Grove
January 17-20	Calloway Co. v. Tourney
HIGH SCHOOL
January 12	Murray Ht. at S. Marshall
January 12	Benton at Calloway Co.
COLLEGE
January 12	Louisiana State at Kentucky
January 13	Western at Murray
January 13	Morehead at Tenn. Tech
January 13	Eastern at East Tenn.
January 13	Austin Peay at Middle Tenn.

BIN HOME LATELY—University of Chicago junior Al Devitt, 23, steps down into his apartment, the coal bin in basement of a fraternity house. When the house swished to another form of heat, Devitt made a deal to live in the coal bin for $12 a month. He'd been paying $25 bunking with friends off campus, and he says he needs the savings.

Coach Thinks Brown's Talk Of Quitting Just Groundwork For New Contract With Cleveland

By ART SPANDER

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—His coach thinks it simple is a gimmick to get more money in 1962 — but Cleveland's Jim Brown, the National Football League's ground gaining champ for the past half decade, said today he seriously was thinking of quitting football.

Brown, rushed for more than 1,400 yards during the 1961 season to lead the NFL in that statistic for the fifth year in a row. He said Thursday he may retire from football to concentrate on his off-season job with the Pepsi-Cola

Co. in New York.

"I won't know for a while," the 228-pound fullback said, "I have a lot of talking to do."

Brown said he talked to Pepsi-Cola's special market supervisor, Harvey Russell — the man whom Brown is attached to in the organization — but no decisions will be made until the football star gets back to his home in Cleveland.

However, in Cleveland, coach Paul Brown of the Browns said he expects the former Syracuse University star to be with the team next fall.

"This is the time of the year for our Jim to start laying the groundwork for a new contract," Brown said.

In Los Angeles for the pro bowl game on Sunday in the Coliseum, the pile driving runner said he would go to New York next week but wasn't sure about announcing his plans at that time.

Brown did say he might continue to play if traded to the NFL New York Giants, "where I could devote full time to my job in New York and still play football during the season."

There was some talk Brown was upset over the way he was treated at Cleveland this year. But, except for carrying the ball

Who Launders
Shirts Best? BOONE'S

Boone's

KIAC Champ Takes Tigers At Home

by United Press International

Georgetown, defending champion in the KIAC race, out-rebounded and out-shot Bellarmine on the Tigers' home floor Thursday night for an 88-69 win.

The Tigers hit for 57 per cent of their shots and grabbed off 51 rebounds with Dick Vories sinking 25 points and Joe Farris netting 20. Bellarmine, which was never a serious threat in the game, was led by Ben Monhollen with 21 points.

The win brought Georgetown's KIAC record to 3-0 and over-all slate to 13-2. Bellarmine is now 4-7 over-all and 2-2 in the conference.

The Pioneers from Transylvania charged back after trailing by 15 points at the half to surprise Centre, 84-67, at Danville, Charlie Moore with 16 and Lynn Stewart and Joe Stark with 14 points each paced Transylvania. Bill Distler was high for Centre with 18.

Pikeville hit for 66 per cent from the floor in the second half to win from host Villa Madonna, 84-73. The Bears had a 50.8 scoring percentage for the night. Pete Campbell led Pikeville with 21 points and Frank Emmerich connected for 26 points for Villa Madonna.

For Your Every HEATING OIL

Need call

KENTUCKY LAKE OIL CO.

New Concord Road

Phone PL 3-1323

* SPECIAL *

PERMANENT TYPE ANTI-FREEZE

$1.69 installed Tax Paid

MARTIN OIL COMPANY

Second and Main Streets

PORTRAITS

IN NATURAL LIVING COLOR

A BEAUTIFUL 3x5 PORTRAIT IN NATURAL LIVING COLOR

only 99¢

Groups $1.00 each additional person

Only One Picture Per Person

Wallet Size less than 50¢ WE WELCOME FAMILY GROUPS!

NATIONAL HOTEL

MURRAY, KY.

FRIDAY and

SATURDAY

January 12 & 13

HOURS

Friday 12 to 7 p.m.

Saturday 12 to 6 p.m.

ARE YOU SURE
Your Office Machines Are In GOOD SHAPE

for your

INCOME TAX

RETURNS??

For Complete Repair Service

TAKE THEM TO

THE LEDGER & TIMES

OR CALL DL 2-1916

TODAY!

RED HOT SALE

FOR A FROZEN SITUATION

BUY A STA-RITE PUMP

1/2-HP PUMPING UNIT

3/4-HP PUMPING UNIT

Regular Price $139.00

Regular Price $135.00

Sale Price $60.00

Sale Price $60.00

And Your Frozen Pump, Any Brand

And Your Frozen Pump, Any Brand

OTHER SIZES PRICED ACCORDINGLY

ELLIS PUMP & PIPE CO.

1303 Chestnut Street

Phone PLaza 3-2850

TO RENT LOST-FOUND SERVICE HIRE BUY & SELL TRADE YOU'LL FIND IT IN THE WANT ADS!

FOR SALE

1960 DODGE 2 DOOR, LOW-mileage, extra clean. Call 492-2173 after 4:30 p.m. j11p

1952 CHEVROLET CLUB COUPE, power glide, excellent condition. 1651 Ryan, dial PL 3-5846. j11c

30" RCA ELECTRIC STOVE, 1961 model, used only 3 months, complete with timer electric clock and instant heating elements. May be seen any time at 102 N. 15th, Apt. 8. j11p

REGISTERED BOXER BULLDOG puppies. Phone PL 3-4450. j11c

MODEL HD-5G ALLIS CHALMERS crawler tractor, equipment, front end loader, completely rebuilt engine and necessary repairs throughout. Must see to appreciate. Call or see Al Williams, Road Builders Equipment Company, TU 5-5843, Union City, Tennessee. j11c

MODEL TL-10 ALLIS CHALMERS, rubber tired front end loader, equipment, with one-yard bucket. Good condition. Cheap. Call or see Al Williams, Road Builders Equipment Company, TU 5-5843, Union City, Tennessee. j11c

HELP WANTED

ROUTE MAN WANTED FOR local business. Some salesmanship would be advantage. Call on body shops and garages. Responsible position. Job is remunerative. Applicant should be willing to work and not loaf, should have at least a high school education. This is a good job for the right man. Opportunity for advancement. If you are interested in a good steady job, apply today to P.O. 324, Murray, Ky. j11c

ARE YOU LOOKING FOR A good part time or full time income in Murray. Many Rawleigh dealers earn $2.50 and up per hour. Write Rawleigh, Dept. KYA-1090-28, Freeport, Ill. j11p

FEMALE HELP WANTED

AFTER CHRISTMAS BILLS ARE no problem if you begin now as an Avon Representative. Open territories in Faxon and around Russell Chapel and Highway 94 North. Miss Alma Catlett, P.O. Box 1004, Paducah, Kentucky. j11c

FOR RENT

5 ROOM BRICK, MODERN, electric heat, furnished or unfurnished. N. 18th Street. Call HE 5-4640 after 5:00 p.m. j11p

WANTED TO RENT

SMALL HOUSE WHERE COULD have chickens, near bus route, grocery. Mrs. Lillian Sykes, Route 3, Box 22, Buchanan, Tenn. j11c

HOG MARKET

Federal - State Market News Service, Friday, Jan. 12, 1962. Kentucky Purchase - Area Hog Market Report including 9 buying stations. Receipts Thursday totaled 859 head. Today barrows No. 1, 2 and 3 barrows and gilts and gilts 25-50 lbs. lower. Mixed U.S. 180 to 240 lbs. $17.25 to $17.50; 245 to 270 lbs. $16.00 to $17.25; 275 to 300 lbs. $15.25 to $16.50; 350 to 475 lbs. $13.00 to $17.25; No. 2 and 3 sows 300 to 600 lbs. $12.50 to $15.00. Boars all weights $9.00 to $12.00. j11c

WANTED

LADIES FOR PART OR FULL time work. Earning $1.50 to $2.00 per hour. Write Manager, 1201 Vine, Murray, Kentucky. j11c

LADY TO COME AND LIVE IN my home and help with elderly lady. Phone PL 3-2443. j11c

NOTICE

MAGNIFICENT SPINET PIANO. Will place in responsible hands at modest price on convenient payments. Fully guaranteed. Write before we send truck. Joplin Piano Co., Joplin, Mo. j11c

IT COSTS NOTHING TO USE A Blue Lustre Shampoo with purchase of Blue Lustre, Crass Furniture Company. j11c

YOUR MURRAY-CALLOWAY COUNTY

BUSINESS DIRECTORY

ADDING MACHINES and TYPEWRITERS

Ledger & Times PL 3-1916

DRUG STORES

Scott Drugs PL 3-2547

INSURANCE

Frazee, Melugin & Holton Gen. Insurance PL 3-3415

LADIES READY TO WEAR

Littletons PL 3-4623

OFFICE SUPPLIES

Ledger & Times PL 3-1916

PRINTING

Ledger & Times PL 3-1916

TYPEWRITER RENTAL AND SERVICE

Ledger & Times PL 3-1916

USED AUTO PARTS

Murray Auto Salvage - Hazel Rd. Parts For All Models - PL 3-3756

THE GREEN STONE

A suspense thriller by SUZANNE BLANC

From the novel published by Harper & Row. Copyright © 1961 by Suzanne Blanc. Distributed by King Features Syndicate.

CHAPTER 26

"I've been in Mexico only three days," Jesse said. "This morning my purse was snatched, tonight—well, you all saw my slashed tires."

Jessie, I've been here for years and I've never had so much as a peso stolen," Ruth Alexander interjected. "Perhaps that means it out."

"The chances are one in a million of its ever happening again," Emily said, bravely pouring everyone more coffee.

"One in five hundred thousand," Rose corrected her with an unflinching grin. "I agree, Emily. It won't happen again."

Talking it over reduced the incident to the predictable status of a highway accident, still a lingering uneasiness held them together in front of the brightness of the fire.

The conversation shifted to the party, its pleasures re-created and explored until the undercurrent was disrupted in the memory of the music, the food, the fireworks, the warmth of the hospitality.

The mutilated tires were not mentioned again, not the threat implied to them. Only Jesse thought about them, wondering from time to time, how difficult it would be to have them replaced and whether it would be very expensive, but she didn't mention them either.

While they were still talking the night divided away. The servants returned to the Villa. Uncle Pedro looked the gate and shuffled past the lounge on his way to the servants quarters. The fire burned down to embers outside, the darkness grew less opaque until the slope and the wall became discernible through the grayness.

"It's almost sunrise," Ruth said at last. "You can already see the trees."

Her comment was all that was needed to remind the Grooms that they were very tired, and within a few minutes the group had scattered.

"For them," Jesse thought wearily, "the whole business is over. For me, it's just beginning." Some of the earlier night, more significance returned, some of the old, tightening distraction, so that she was glad when the wind had died and the pre-dawn stillness was broken only by the sleepy twittering of the birds.

In a few hours it would be daylight and something must be done about the car. Forced to face the problem, it seemed insurmountable.

"I don't know where to begin," she said.

"Don't worry about your car, Jess. I'll take care of it in the morning," Jesse said.

"But could there be any trouble getting tires, I mean, Jesse persisted.

He started to answer her frankly. "Possibly. It depends on how many we'll need, whether we can salvage any, or the old ones and what's available in San Luis." Then, noticing the caughrin creep across her face, he added thrily, "Look, Jess, I told you not to worry. At the very worst we'll have to order them from Mexico City."

"But that could take forever!" Jesse protested. For a single, split instant it seemed to her that without her car she was helplessly entrapped.

"No, forever, Jesse, an extra day or two at the most." He continued soothingly as if she were very young and very frightened. "Just remember, nothing serious has happened—nothing that didn't happen anywhere and nothing that can't be repaired. Now, before it gets too hot, you get some sleep and leave the rest to me."

All at once, before she could respond or object, he leaned over and kissed her on the mouth. His tenderness comforted her, made her feel safe, he added thrily, "Look, Jess, I told you not to worry. At the very worst we'll have to order them from Mexico City."

"But that could take forever!" Jesse protested. For a single, split instant it seemed to her that without her car she was helplessly entrapped.

"No, forever, Jesse, an extra day or two at the most." He continued soothingly as if she were very young and very frightened. "Just remember, nothing serious has happened—nothing that didn't happen anywhere and nothing that can't be repaired. Now, before it gets too hot, you get some sleep and leave the rest to me."

All at once, before she could respond or object, he leaned over and kissed her on the mouth. His tenderness comforted her, made her feel safe, he added thrily, "Look, Jess, I told you not to worry. At the very worst we'll have to order them from Mexico City."

"But that could take forever!" Jesse protested. For a single, split instant it seemed to her that without her car she was helplessly entrapped.

"No, forever, Jesse, an extra day or two at the most." He continued soothingly as if she were very young and very frightened. "Just remember, nothing serious has happened—nothing that didn't happen anywhere and nothing that can't be repaired. Now, before it gets too hot, you get some sleep and leave the rest to me."

All at once, before she could respond or object, he leaned over and kissed her on the mouth. His tenderness comforted her, made her feel safe, he added thrily, "Look, Jess, I told you not to worry. At the very worst we'll have to order them from Mexico City."

Book Deals With Christianity And Anti-Semitism Roots

By LOUIS CASSELS

United Press International

It's hard to conceive of anything more radically contrary to the spirit of Jesus Christ than the inhuman treatment accorded to Jews by Nazis like Adolf Eichmann.

Many Christians may therefore be shocked by the assertion that the gas chambers of Auschwitz were simply the ultimate expression of a contempt for Jews that has been cultivated for centuries in Sunday schools and catechism classes where children learn the story of Jesus.

This assertion is made and supported by an impressive amount of evidence—in a little book which is currently having a big impact in the seminaries and religious education departments of major Christian bodies.

It is entitled: "Has anti-Semitism roots in Christianity?" The author is Prof. Julius Isaac, a distinguished Jewish scholar of Paris. An English translation was published in the United States by the National Conference of Christians and Jews, with a foreword by Richard Cardinal Cushing of Boston.

Prof. Isaac's criticism is aimed not at true Christianity which, he says, "excludes anti-Semitism," but at a superficial and distorted presentation of the New Testament which has played in Christian minds an "ignoble image" of Jews and Judaism.

Specifically, he says, Christians have been taught—and in some instances are still being taught—that the Jews rejected Jesus and sent him to the cross because they were a hard-hearted people who preferred the empty formalism of a ritualistic religion to the living word of God.

Ignored or under-emphasized in this teaching, he says, are many important facts which are plainly recorded in the Gospels: Namely, that Jesus himself was a Jew, "born of an old Jewish family," and deeply versed in Jewish law and tradition; that all of his disciples were Jews; that the fathers of the Christian church were Jews; and that throughout his ministry Jesus had "the enthusiastic sympathy of the Jewish masses, in Jerusalem as well as in Galilee."

All four of the Gospels make clear, Prof. Isaac notes, that the high priests who caused the arrest and condemnation of Jesus were the representatives of an oligarchic caste, bound to Rome and detested by the Jewish people. They also record that the high priests and their accomplices acted against Jesus in secrecy because they feared a popular uprising in his support if he were publicly seized.

Misunderstanding Arises

Prof. Isaac believes that much misunderstanding has arisen from the fact that New Testament writers, and especially the author of the Fourth Gospel, had a tendency to use the collective term, "the Jews," for the corrupt priestly caste.

But they feel that his message may also be missed by trying to pin all of the blame on a small oligarchy of political priests.

As Cardinal Cushing notes in his foreword to Prof. Isaac's book, the real point of the Gospels is that "we ourselves"—all human beings, Christians of the 20th Century no less than Jews of the First Century—are involved in guilt for what happened on Calvary. It was for the sins of ALL men that Christ died, and all men are therefore "present and culpable" at His crucifixion.

The basic Christian doctrine is clearly incompatible with any attempt to make the Jews a scapegoat people, or to justify their historic sufferings as a "divine punishment" for the rejection of Christ.

More Careful Teaching

At its recent assembly in New Delhi, India, the World Council of Churches urged its member denominations to see that the true Christian doctrine is more carefully and clearly taught.

"In Christian teaching," the world council said, "the historic events which led to the crucifixion should not be presented as to fasten upon the Jewish people today responsibilities which belong to our corporate humanity."

Both Catholics and Protestants are now conducting reviews of religious education materials used

Book Deals With Christianity And Anti-Semitism Roots

By LOUIS CASSELS

United Press International

It's hard to conceive of anything more radically contrary to the spirit of Jesus Christ than the inhuman treatment accorded to Jews by Nazis like Adolf Eichmann.

Many Christians may therefore be shocked by the assertion that the gas chambers of Auschwitz were simply the ultimate expression of a contempt for Jews that has been cultivated for centuries in Sunday schools and catechism classes where children learn the story of Jesus.

This assertion is made and supported by an impressive amount of evidence—in a little book which is currently having a big impact in the seminaries and religious education departments of major Christian bodies.

It is entitled: "Has anti-Semitism roots in Christianity?" The author is Prof. Julius Isaac, a distinguished Jewish scholar of Paris. An English translation was published in the United States by the National Conference of Christians and Jews, with a foreword by Richard Cardinal Cushing of Boston.

Prof. Isaac's criticism is aimed not at true Christianity which, he says, "excludes anti-Semitism," but at a superficial and distorted presentation of the New Testament which has played in Christian minds an "ignoble image" of Jews and Judaism.

Specifically, he says, Christians have been taught—and in some instances are still being taught—that the Jews rejected Jesus and sent him to the cross because they were a hard-hearted people who preferred the empty formalism of a ritualistic religion to the living word of God.

Ignored or under-emphasized in this teaching, he says, are many important facts which are plainly recorded in the Gospels: Namely, that Jesus himself was a Jew, "born of an old Jewish family," and deeply versed in Jewish law and tradition; that all of his disciples were Jews; that the fathers of the Christian church were Jews; and that throughout his ministry Jesus had "the enthusiastic sympathy of the Jewish masses, in Jerusalem as well as in Galilee."

All four of the Gospels make clear, Prof. Isaac notes, that the high priests who caused the arrest and condemnation of Jesus were the representatives of an oligarchic caste, bound to Rome and detested by the Jewish people. They also record that the high priests and their accomplices acted against Jesus in secrecy because they feared a popular uprising in his support if he were publicly seized.

Misunderstanding Arises

Prof. Isaac believes that much misunderstanding has arisen from the fact that New Testament writers, and especially the author of the Fourth Gospel, had a tendency to use the collective term, "the Jews," for the corrupt priestly caste.

But they feel that his message may also be missed by trying to pin all of the blame on a small oligarchy of political priests.

As Cardinal Cushing notes in his foreword to Prof. Isaac's book, the real point of the Gospels is that "we ourselves"—all human beings, Christians of the 20th Century no less than Jews of the First Century—are involved in guilt for what happened on Calvary. It was for the sins of ALL men that Christ died, and all men are therefore "present and culpable" at His crucifixion.

The basic Christian doctrine is clearly incompatible with any attempt to make the Jews a scapegoat people, or to justify their historic sufferings as a "divine punishment" for the rejection of Christ.

More Careful Teaching

At its recent assembly in New Delhi, India, the World Council of Churches urged its member denominations to see that the true Christian doctrine is more carefully and clearly taught.

"In Christian teaching," the world council said, "the historic events which led to the crucifixion should not be presented as to fasten upon the Jewish people today responsibilities which belong to our corporate humanity."

Both Catholics and Protestants are now conducting reviews of religious education materials used

Book Deals With Christianity And Anti-Semitism Roots

By LOUIS CASSELS

United Press International

It's hard to conceive of anything more radically contrary to the spirit of Jesus Christ than the inhuman treatment accorded to Jews by Nazis like Adolf Eichmann.

Many Christians may therefore be shocked by the assertion that the gas chambers of Auschwitz were simply the ultimate expression of a contempt for Jews that has been cultivated for centuries in Sunday schools and catechism classes where children learn the story of Jesus.

This assertion is made and supported by an impressive amount of evidence—in a little book which is currently having a big impact in the seminaries and religious education departments of major Christian bodies.

It is entitled: "Has anti-Semitism roots in Christianity?" The author is Prof. Julius Isaac, a distinguished Jewish scholar of Paris. An English translation was published in the United States by the National Conference of Christians and Jews, with a foreword by Richard Cardinal Cushing of Boston.

Prof. Isaac's criticism is aimed not at true Christianity which, he says, "excludes anti-Semitism," but at a superficial and distorted presentation of the New Testament which has played in Christian minds an "ignoble image" of Jews and Judaism.

Specifically, he says, Christians have been taught—and in some instances are still being taught—that the Jews rejected Jesus and sent him to the cross because they were a hard-hearted people who preferred the empty formalism of a ritualistic religion to the living word of God.

Ignored or under-emphasized in this teaching, he says, are many important facts which are plainly recorded in the Gospels: Namely, that Jesus himself was a Jew, "born of an old Jewish family," and deeply versed in Jewish law and tradition; that all of his disciples were Jews; that the fathers of the Christian church were Jews; and that throughout his ministry Jesus had "the enthusiastic sympathy of the Jewish masses, in Jerusalem as well as in Galilee."

All four of the Gospels make clear, Prof. Isaac notes, that the high priests who caused the arrest and condemnation of Jesus were the representatives of an oligarchic caste, bound to Rome and detested by the Jewish people. They also record that the high priests and their accomplices acted against Jesus in secrecy because they feared a popular uprising in his support if he were publicly seized.

Misunderstanding Arises

Prof. Isaac believes that much misunderstanding has arisen from the fact that New Testament writers, and especially the author of the Fourth Gospel, had a tendency to use the collective term, "the Jews," for the corrupt priestly caste.

But they feel that his message may also be missed by trying to pin all of the blame on a small oligarchy of political priests.

As Cardinal Cushing notes in his foreword to Prof. Isaac's book, the real point of the Gospels is that "we ourselves"—all human beings, Christians of the 20th Century no less than Jews of the First Century—are involved in guilt for what happened on Calvary. It was for the sins of ALL men that Christ died, and all men are therefore "present and culpable" at His crucifixion.

The basic Christian doctrine is clearly incompatible with any attempt to make the Jews a scapegoat people, or to justify their historic sufferings as a "divine punishment" for the rejection of Christ.

More Careful Teaching

At its recent assembly in New Delhi, India, the World Council of Churches urged its member denominations to see that the true Christian doctrine is more carefully and clearly taught.

"In Christian teaching," the world council said, "the historic events which led to the crucifixion should not be presented as to fasten upon the Jewish people today responsibilities which belong to our corporate humanity."

Both Catholics and Protestants are now conducting reviews of religious education materials used

Book Deals With Christianity And Anti-Semitism Roots

By LOUIS CASSELS

United Press International

It's hard to conceive of anything more radically contrary to the spirit of Jesus Christ than the inhuman treatment accorded to Jews by Nazis like Adolf Eichmann.

Many Christians may therefore be shocked by the assertion that the gas chambers of Auschwitz were simply the ultimate expression of a contempt for Jews that has been cultivated for centuries in Sunday schools and catechism classes where children learn the story of Jesus.

This assertion is made and supported by an impressive amount of evidence—in a little book which is currently having a big impact in the seminaries and religious education departments of major Christian bodies.

It is entitled: "Has anti-Semitism roots in Christianity?" The author is Prof. Julius Isaac, a distinguished Jewish scholar of Paris. An English translation was published in the United States by the National Conference of Christians and Jews, with a foreword by Richard Cardinal Cushing of Boston.

Prof. Isaac's criticism is aimed not at true Christianity which, he says, "excludes anti-Semitism," but at a superficial and distorted presentation of the New Testament which has played in Christian minds an "ignoble image" of Jews and Judaism.

Specifically, he says, Christians have been taught—and in some instances are still being taught—that the Jews rejected Jesus and sent him to the cross because they were a hard-hearted people who preferred the empty formalism of a ritualistic religion to the living word of God.

Ignored or under-emphasized in this teaching, he says, are many important facts which are plainly recorded in the Gospels: Namely, that Jesus himself was a Jew, "born of an old Jewish family," and deeply versed in Jewish law and tradition; that all of his disciples were Jews; that the fathers of the Christian church were Jews; and that throughout his ministry Jesus had "the enthusiastic sympathy of the Jewish masses, in Jerusalem as well as in Galilee."

All four of the Gospels make clear, Prof. Isaac notes, that the high priests who caused the arrest and condemnation of Jesus were the representatives of an oligarchic caste, bound to Rome and detested by the Jewish people. They also record that the high priests and their accomplices acted against Jesus in secrecy because they feared a popular uprising in his support if he were publicly seized.

Misunderstanding Arises

Prof. Isaac believes that much misunderstanding has arisen from the fact that New Testament writers, and especially the author of the Fourth Gospel, had a tendency to use the collective term, "the Jews," for the corrupt priestly caste.

But they feel that his message may also be missed by trying to pin all of the blame on a small oligarchy of political priests.

As Cardinal Cushing notes in his foreword to Prof. Isaac's book, the real point of the Gospels is that "we ourselves"—all human beings, Christians of the 20th Century no less than Jews of the First Century—are involved in guilt for what happened on Calvary. It was for the sins of ALL men that Christ died, and all men are therefore "present and culpable" at His crucifixion.

The basic Christian doctrine is clearly incompatible with any attempt to make the Jews a scapegoat people, or to justify their historic sufferings as a "divine punishment" for the rejection of Christ.

More Careful Teaching

At its recent assembly in New Delhi, India, the World Council of Churches urged its member denominations to see that the true Christian doctrine is more carefully and clearly taught.

"In Christian teaching," the world council said, "the historic events which led to the crucifixion should not be presented as to fasten upon the Jewish people today responsibilities which belong to our corporate humanity."

Both Catholics and Protestants are now conducting reviews of religious education materials used

CROSSWORD PUZZLE Answer to Yesterday's Puzzle

ACROSS

- 1-Macaw
- 2-Heap
- 3-Meadow
- 4-Secret agent
- 5-Drift slowly
- 6-Send forth
- 7-Nollies
- 8-Confederate general
- 9-Occurs
- 10-Tidy
- 11-Ireland
- 12-Woody plant
- 13-Close
- 14-Occur
- 15-Marked by jagged lines
- 16-Stories
- 17-Decays
- 18-Consumes
- 19-Point
- 20-Beast of burden
- 21-Self-respect
- 22-Music
- 23-Note of scale
- 24-Beef animal
- 25-Parasites
- 26-Fossorial
- 27-Fossorial
- 28-Manufactured
- 29-Positive pole
- 30-100,000
- 31-Laughing
- 32-First Century
- 33-Writing fluid
- 34-Classifies
- 35-Place

DOWN

- 1-Residue
- 2-Inlet
- 3-Dogs
- 4-Dock
- 5-Slaves
- 6-Worm
- 7-Symbol for plutonium
- 8-Concepts
- 9-Smooth and rocky
- 10-Edible seed
- 11-Longing (slang)
- 12-Heap
- 13-Walked on
- 14-Look fixedly
- 15-Nollies
- 16-Commonplace
- 17-Occurs
- 18-Balanced ones
- 19-Squandered
- 20-Spoils
- 21-Whispered
- 22-Wire drive
- 23-Confusion
- 24-Protective garment
- 25-Deceives
- 26-Mohammed, an name
- 27-Girl's nickname
- 28-Deface
- 29-Biblically
- 30-Make lace
- 31-Maiden loved by Zeus

Diagrams of crossword puzzles.

CHIROPRACTIC CARE AVAILABLE

WITHOUT CHARGE

FOR NEEDY CHILDREN

Tues. and Fri. - 3 p.m. to 5 p.m.

HOWARD OAKLEY, D.C.

201 NORTH FIFTH

MURRAY, KY.

753-1905

YOUR WINDSHIELD WIPER NEEDS CARE OF

The National Safety Council says: "Be sure your wiper blades are in good condition, and have arm pressure of one ounce per inch of blade length to sweep snow and sleet off instead of sliding over it." Dead blades may make dead drivers. Check defroster too. You must see a hazard to avoid it.

PEANUTS

MISS OTTILIA GAVE ME BACK MY BLANKET!

SHE SAID I CAN'T TAKE IT TO SCHOOL ANY MORE BUT SHE THINKS IT'S ALL RIGHT FOR ME TO HAVE IT AT HOME...

NANCY

I HATE THESE LONG WAITS FOR THE BUS

BUS STOP

LIL' ABNER

NOT THAT I'M CALLIN' YOU NO SCRAWNY, SAWED-OFF LITTLE LIAR, MAM—BUT WHAT PROOF HAVE YOU GOT EVIL-EYE FLEEGLE IS IN WASHINGTON?

TH' PROOF'S COMIN' NOW, SON! AH-FEEELS MAH GOODNESS GLANDS A-TREMBLIN'!

FASTEN ALL SEAT BELTS!!

ABBIE AN' SLATS

LET ME THINK—YES, THE HOUSE WAS HERE—I'M SURE

DIDN'T YOU SAY SOMETHIN' ABOUT A YOUNG GIRL BEIN' LEFT BEHIND?

OF COURSE!

THEN WHY NOT TRY CALLIN' OUT TO HER, SHE COULDN'T O'WANDERED FAR—TUTIN' THAT

I—I WOULD CALL EXCEPT THAT—I—I DON'T KNOW HER NAME

THAT DOES IT, SON! YOU'RE COMIN' WITH ME AND NO MORE FAIRY TALES, OR—SHELF ME, I'LL SLAP A DANDY AT FEELS ON YOU!

PEANUTS

MISS OTTILIA GAVE ME BACK MY BLANKET!

SHE SAID I CAN'T TAKE IT TO SCHOOL ANY MORE BUT SHE THINKS IT'S ALL RIGHT FOR ME TO HAVE IT AT HOME...

NANCY

I HATE THESE LONG WAITS FOR THE BUS

BUS STOP

LIL' ABNER

NOT THAT I'M CALLIN' YOU NO SCRAWNY, SAWED-OFF LITTLE LIAR, MAM—BUT WHAT PROOF HAVE YOU GOT EVIL-EYE FLEEGLE IS IN WASHINGTON?

TH' PROOF'S COMIN' NOW, SON! AH-FEEELS MAH GOODNESS GLANDS A-TREMBLIN'!

FASTEN ALL SEAT BELTS!!

ABBIE AN' SLATS

LET ME THINK—YES, THE HOUSE WAS HERE—I'M SURE

DIDN'T YOU SAY SOMETHIN' ABOUT A YOUNG GIRL BEIN' LEFT BEHIND?

OF COURSE!

THEN WHY NOT TRY CALLIN' OUT TO HER, SHE COULDN'T O'WANDERED FAR—TUTIN' THAT

I—I WOULD CALL EXCEPT THAT—I—I DON'T KNOW HER NAME

THAT DOES IT, SON! YOU'RE COMIN' WITH ME AND NO MORE FAIRY TALES, OR—SHELF ME, I'LL SLAP A DANDY AT FEELS ON YOU!

PEANUTS

MISS OTTILIA GAVE ME BACK MY BLANKET!

SHE SAID I CAN'T TAKE IT TO SCHOOL ANY MORE BUT SHE THINKS IT'S ALL RIGHT FOR ME TO HAVE IT AT HOME...

NANCY

I HATE THESE LONG WAITS FOR THE BUS

BUS STOP

LIL' ABNER

NOT THAT I'M CALLIN' YOU NO SCRAWNY, SAWED-OFF LITTLE LIAR, MAM—BUT WHAT PROOF HAVE YOU GOT EVIL-EYE FLEEGLE IS IN WASHINGTON?

TH' PROOF'S COMIN' NOW, SON! AH-FEEELS MAH GOODNESS GLANDS A-TREMBLIN'!

FASTEN ALL SEAT

Mrs. J. B. Burkeen - PLaza 3-4947

Woman's World

Dorothy Circle Has Meet At Home Of Mrs. Eugene Russell

Mrs. Eugene Russell opened her home for the meeting of the Dorothy Circle of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church held on Thursday morning at 9:30 o'clock.

The chairman, Mrs. Castle Parker, presided and was in charge of the timely and interesting program. She was assisted in the presentation by Mrs. J. B. Burkeen, Mrs. Bill Mahan, and Mrs. James Ward.

Mrs. Ward and Mrs. W. C. Adams led in the opening and closing prayers. The prayer chairman, Mrs. A. W. Russell, discussed prayer partners.

A social hour was held with refreshments being served to the twelve members and one guest, Mrs. Wade Crawford.

Social Calendar

Friday, January 12th

The North Murray Homemakers Club will meet at the home of Mrs. John Workman at 1:30 p.m. Woman's Association of the Col-

Monday, January 15

The Woman's Association of the College Presbyterian Church will meet at the home of Mrs. E. R. Hagen, 520 Whitwell, at 8 p.m.

The Calloway County High School Parent-Teacher Association will hold its regular meeting at the school at 7:30 p.m. All members are urged to attend.

The Penny Homemakers Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Allen Cole at 10 a.m. Mrs. Brooks Moody and Mrs. Leola Norsworthy will give the lesson on "A Plan For Spending, Saving, and Sharing."

The Women's Altar Society of St. Leo's Catholic Church will meet in the home of Mrs. Clyde Johnson on Route One at 7:30 p.m.

Tuesday, January 16

Circle II of the WSCS of the First Methodist Church will meet in the home of Mrs. A. F. Doran, Mayfield Road, with Mrs. Alice Jones as cohostess at 2:30 p.m. The program chairman is Mrs. E. W. Riley.

The Christian Women's Fellowship of the First Christian Church will hold its general meeting at the church at 9:30 a.m.

Murray Assembly No. 19 Order of the Rainbow for Girls will hold its regular meeting at the Masonic Hall at 7 p.m. An installation of officers will be held.

The Music Department of the Murray Woman's Club will hold its regular meeting at the club house at 7:30 p.m. Hostesses will be Mesdames James Rudy Allbright, Bernard Harvey, Howard Ojila, H. W. Wilson, Max Carman and Miss Lillian Waters.

Mrs. Matt Sparkman, president of the United Church Women, is calling an executive board meeting at 10 a.m. in the educational building for the Murray First Methodist Church. All churches of the area are invited to send representatives to this meeting.

The Annie Armstrong Circle of the WMS of the First Baptist Church will meet at the church at 7:30 p.m. Following the general meeting the circle will go to the home of Mrs. Robert Scott for a social hour.

The First Baptist Church Woman's Missionary Society will hold its general meeting at the church at 7:30 p.m. with the Annie Armstrong Circle presenting the program.

Mrs. Joe Walker Presents Program

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Temple Hill Methodist Church held its regular meeting at the church on Sunday evening at seven o'clock.

Mrs. Joe Walker presented the program. Her interesting and timely talk was on "Dangers of Alcohol in the Home." The vice-president, Mrs. Wayne Darnell, presided. Plans were made for a rummage sale to be held on Saturday, January 20.

Dick-Ford Vows To Be Read

MISS PANSY REBECCA DICK

Mrs. Lubie Dick, Mayfield, announces the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Pansy Rebecca, to Jimmy Harris Ford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alpha Ford of Lynn Grove.

Miss Dick, daughter of the late Table Dick, was graduated from Sedalia High School, and is presently employed in the payroll department of the Merit Clothing Company.

Mr. Ford graduated from Lynn Grove High School and attended Murray State College. He was graduated from the University of Tennessee College of Pharmacy in Memphis, and is presently employed at Duke and Stubblefield in Murray.

The wedding will be solemnized Sunday, January 28, at three o'clock in the afternoon at the Northside Church of Christ. No formal invitations are being sent, but all friends and relatives of the couple are invited to attend.

Mrs. E. J. Beale Guest Speaker For Guild Meeting

Mrs. E. J. Beale was guest speaker Monday evening at the meeting of the Guild of the Christian Church when it met with Mrs. W. J. Gibson at her home on North Eighth Street.

Mrs. Beale illustrated her talk based on the organized study of the Christian Women's Fellowship with maps, and gave the background of the Christian Church in these countries. She was introduced by Mrs. Vernon Riley, program chairman.

Mrs. John Pasco gave the devotion using a thought from Wordsworth — "God grant me grace and endurance to bear what I cannot change, courage to fight for what I can help to change, wisdom to know the difference." The CWF prayer was led by Mrs. Pasco.

Mrs. George Hart, chairman, conducted the business meeting. Plans were made for the members to visit the Disciple Center on the college campus on Thursday and Sunday evenings in February and furnish refreshments to the students who gather there. Members who volunteered to serve in this project were Mesdames Cleo Rester, Delvin Langston, H. P. Pasco, Eunice Overbey, Charles George, Louise Jellison, and Riley.

Rev. Howard Nichols, minister of the church, was a guest.

Mattie Bell Hays Circle Hears Talk By Mrs. Koenecke

The Mattie Bell Hays Circle of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church held its regular meeting in the social hall on Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Byron Jeffrey opened the meeting and gave the meditation in which she said "Will the year 1962 be of reason, resolution, or revolution?" She closed by saying "whatever it is let us help to make it more Christlike."

The visiting speaker for the program on "Alcohol and The Christian's Responsibility" was Mrs. Alice Koenecke of the home economics department of Murray State College. She gave two personal observations that make us know that alcohol is an immediate problem for Christians. She backed this up with statistics and discussion of harmful effects to individuals and groups.

Mrs. Rue Overbey gave the devotion basing her comments on the 14th chapter of Romans.

A social hour was held with refreshments being served by the hostesses who were Mrs. T. C. Doran, Mrs. W. T. Sledd, Miss Kathleen Patterson, and Mrs. Vernon Stubblefield Jr.

Read today's Sports

TABLE STEAKS WINNER—Rancher Don Hight's 1,800 head of cattle move onto a narrow bridge near Winner, S.D., at end of a 70-mile drive through belly deep snow and two blizzards. Hight (middle, lower) is congratulated by auctioneers Ted Daughters and son Eldon. The 40-year-old former panhandler and eight hands drove the cattle overland, instead of hauling them by truck, to save $2,000. The cattle reportedly arrived in better shape than if by truck.

Dr. Tesseneer Is Speaker At Sigma Department Meet

Dr. Ralph Tesseneer was the guest speaker at the meeting of the Sigma Department of the Murray Woman's Club held on Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

"Can Children Think Straight?" was the subject of the very interesting talk given by Dr. Tesseneer. He discussed perception in young children.

Mrs. James Rogers, program chairman, introduced the guest speaker. The club woman's creed was read by Mrs. Castle Parker. The department chairman, Mrs. Bob Ward, presided. During the business session the group voted to donate twenty-five cents per member for a total of $12.50 to the Care and Dollars for Scholars, a project of the Woman's Club.

During the social hour cake and coffee were served by the hostesses who were Mrs. Virgil Harris, Mrs. Eli Alexander, Mrs. Gene Landolt, Mrs. Robert Hopkins, and Mrs. Glendel Reeves.

Murray Mfg. Wives Club Has Dinner Meeting Tuesday

The Murray Manufacturing Wives Club held its regular dinner meeting at the Triangle Inn on Tuesday evening at six o'clock.

Mrs. Tom Lykes, president, presided at the meeting. Other officers are Mrs. Jack Cochran, vice-president; Mrs. Al Hewitt, secretary; Mrs. John Cohoon, treasurer; Mrs. Wywan Holland, floral chairman.

Dinner was served to the twenty-four members and one visitor, Mrs. Margie Caldwell.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Holland, Mrs. Edgar Howe, Mrs. Verne Kyle, and Mrs. Al Kipp.

OUT OF FASHION—Gigliola Montanari (above), daughter of Zoe Fontana, one of Italy's famous fashion designers, is shown in her "Daughters of Christ the King" habit in Cagliari, Sardinia, where she became a novice. Jan. 8, Gigliola, 24, created the popular "space line."

Mrs. Hugh Houston Hostess For Mary Leona Frost Circle

Mrs. Hugh Houston was hostess for the meeting of the Mary Leona Frost Circle of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church held on Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock in the social hall.

The guest speaker for the morning

Vinson Home Scene Of Family Reunion Held On Sunday

The family of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Vinson of Stewart County, Tenn., held a reunion on Sunday, January 7, 1962, in the home of a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Orlena Vinson, her daughter, Mrs. Ida Lorene, and her sister, Mrs. Zeulo Cable, who live in Hazel.

A potluck dinner was served. All the family was present with the exception of a daughter, Mrs. Albert Moore and Mr. Moore of Hopkinsville, who were unable to attend due to weather conditions.

Attending the reunion were Mr. and Mrs. Willie Owen Vinson and daughter, Beth, of Hazel; Mr. and Mrs. Dee Vinson, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dill, of Murray; Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Garland, of Penny; grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Solomon and children, Linda and Susan, of Gilbertsville, Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Dill and children, Jeannie and John, of Mayfield, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wade Garland and children, Michael and Donna, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Finney and daughter, Phyllis, of Murray.

ing program was Mrs. Alice Koenecke of the home economics department of Murray State College. She spoke on the subject, "Alcohol and the Christian's Responsibility", using personal observations, statistics, and harmful effects to individuals and groups on this immediate problem.

Mrs. Will H. Whitnell was in charge of the program and introduced Mrs. Koenecke, Mrs. Jim Ed Diuguid gave the devotion, Mrs. John Whitell, chairman, presided at the meeting.

During the social hour refreshments were served to the sixteen persons present by the hostess, Mrs. Houston.

The National Safety Council says: "Have good tires—new tires if you prefer—and use reinforced tire chains for very slippery and severe conditions. With snow tires, or even with the much greater help of reinforced tire chains, slower-than-normal speeds are a 'must' on snow and ice." Avoid skid wrecks and don't block vital traffic this winter.

NOTICE

Your County Tax Commissioner will be taking tax assessments of your real estate, and other tangible and intangible property starting January 1, 1962, and continuing thru March 1, 1962.

CHARLES E. HALE
Tax Commissioner

MURRAY LOAN CO.
806 W. Main St. Telephone PL 3-2221
"YOUR HOME-OWNED LOAN CO."

COMPLETE BODY SHOP
★ For All Makes of Cars ★
★ BODY WORK ★ PAINTING ★ REPAIRS ★
DUBLIN AUTOS, INC.
606 Maple St. Plaza 3-2661

Watch for...
The new
All Jersey Carton

In The
New Modern
Design

Grade A Division

Ryan Milk Company

Murray, Kentucky

one week only — Jan. 13-Jan. 20

annual sale

Hanes

seamless stockings

save up to $1.05 on every box reinforced sheer — (reg. $1.50) $1.25, 3 prs. $3.60 micro-mesh — (reg. $1.50) $1.25, 3 prs. $3.60

stretch sheer — (reg. $1.65) $1.35, 3 prs. $3.90

sheer heel demi-toe — (reg. $1.65) $1.35, 3 prs. $3.90

THE STYLE SHOP

111 So. 4th St.

Phone PLaza 3-3862